

FROM THE WORLD OF LABOR.

Thomas Perry is the new President of Confectioners' Union No. 122, and Chase Burns was elected Secretary.

New officers will be elected by Cigar-Makers' Union No. 10, whose members were admitted.

Carpenters are on strike at Rock Isl. and Ill., because contractors will not discharge non-union men.

A central labor employment bureau is about to be organized by the Federation of Trades in Elizabeth, N. J.

In Philadelphia the striking plasterers are conferring with their bosses, and a settlement is expected before next Saturday.

Train porters are in Convention at Train City. Their organization has at present 1,117 members, represented by 74 delegates.

At the last meeting of Branch 39, International Brotherhood of Boiler-Makers and Iron-Builders, ten new members were enrolled, and these new officers were elected: President, John L. Gelsinger; Vice-President, John Van Rensselaer; Recording Secretary, Joseph Brooks; Financial Secretary, Michael Gorvin; Corresponding Secretary, Joseph O'Hearn; General Secretary, Philip Mallon; Sergeant-at-Arms, David Malloy. Branch 39, New York City, enrolled four new members and twenty-five apprentices and students. This branch has increased its membership 25 per cent. within the past year. All members are requested to be present at the meeting, June 24, because of great importance will be brought before the meeting.

Bakers' Union No. 35 will have its annual picnic on July 23. Last week two thousand men worked for the employment bureau.

The Progressive Association of Steam-Filter's Helpers will hold a special meeting Tuesday, June 27, to elect officers. Members failing to attend will be fined.

Two electrical workers of Cincinnati, who were charged by the bosses with interfering with the wires, have been discharged by the Court.

An amendment to the constitution of the Ironworkers' Union, the initiation fee to be submitted to a general vote of the local unions.

Textile Workers' Union No. 8 has a special convention at work, gathering information in relation to their trade, which it is claimed, is constantly becoming more precarious.

Propositions to be submitted to the National Convention of the Socialist Party, to be held in New York, will be discussed by the New York Section at the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street, this evening.

The Building Trades Section of the Central Labor Union received contributions from Branch No. 4 of the National Association of Marble-Cutters; Delegates: James A. Fitzgerald, John Marion, James Davis.

The Pacific Coast Council of Trades, the Pacific Coast, covering California, Nevada, Oregon, Washington, Utah and Arizona, and representing about 30,000 workmen, has passed resolutions in favor of political action by labor organizations.

Alexander Jonas, Harry Glyn and E. Brueckmann have been elected delegates to the National Convention of the Socialists' Labor Party to be held in New York section. They will receive their instructions at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected L. L. Marks, President; C. G. Alken, Vice-President; W. J. Whittick, Recording Secretary; J. A. Lipper, Financial Secretary; J. C. Settles, Treasurer, and Frank J. Murphy, M. U. Warden; John Opp, Trustee; J. D. Jennings, C. H. Boxmeyer, W. C. Merrymore, Auditors.

Jersey City, Hopewell's Union, No. 27, has elected J. J. Bennett, and J. J. Bennett, Vice-President; William Kerman, President; Daniel Spellman, Vice-President; Charles McKenna, Secretary; M. P. Murphy, Financial Recorder; T. Ryne, Treasurer; J. K. Carr, Sergeant-at-Arms. Other new local unions were formed at Birmingham, Auburn, Montreal and San Jose.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected L. L. Marks, President; C. G. Alken, Vice-President; W. J. Whittick, Recording Secretary; J. A. Lipper, Financial Secretary; J. C. Settles, Treasurer, and Frank J. Murphy, M. U. Warden; John Opp, Trustee; J. D. Jennings, C. H. Boxmeyer, W. C. Merrymore, Auditors.

On Monday, June 19, 1893, MARTIN, T. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machinists, Paterson, N. J., has taken steps to issue a paper of its own, which will be edited by Wm. H. Ward, one of the veterans in the labor movement, and First Recording Secretary of the New York Central Labor Union.

Carpenters' Union No. 40 has elected G. A. Martin, beloved wife of Philip E. Martin, aged 42 years.

Relatives and friends of the family are especially requested to attend his funeral at a meeting of the Section in the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street.

Branch No. 246 of the International Association of Machin